The University is grateful for the support it receives from alumni and friends. One of the ways our thanks is expressed is expressed through listing the names of donors in various publications. Should you wish that your name not appear as a donor, please notify us if you have not already done so. It is the policy of the University of California, Davis to utilize a portion of the short-term investment income on current gifts and grants to support the costs of raising and administering gift funds. The University of California does not discriminate in any of its policies, procedures or practices. The University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

PRIVACY NOTICE - The 1977 California Information Practices Act requires UC Davis to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves: UC Davis is requesting this information to maintain accurate donor files in the Office of University Relations. Furnishing the information is strictly voluntary and it will be maintained confidentially. The information may be used by other university departments in the regular course of business but will not be disseminated to others except if required by law. You have the right to review your own data file. Inquiries should be forwarded to the Advancement Services, University of California, One Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616.

UC DAVIS FOUNDATION - The UC Davis Foundation is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) public benefit corporation organized for the purpose of encouraging voluntary private support for the benefit of UC Davis, and is recognized under federal and state tax laws as a qualified done for tax-deductible charitable contributions. Responsibility for governance of the Foundation, including investments, is vested in its Board of Trustees, which is composed of community leaders and senior campus administrators.
