MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Your support for UC Davis School of Law helped make 2012-13 a banner year. Thank you for believing in King Hall!

This year, we solidified our standing among the nation's elite law schools, completed the King Hall building expansion and renovation project, hired superstar new faculty, launched the Aoki Center for Critical Race and Nation Studies, initiated international partnerships with law schools in China, Chile, India, and other nations, and much more.

The generosity of our community of supporters makes this success possible. With your unwavering support, we will continue to develop new initiatives, including an intellectual property certificate program, add much-needed scholarships and symposia, and bolster the Law School's international reputation. Thank you again.

Kevin R. Johnson

Dean and Mabie-Apallas Professor of Public Interest Law and Chicana/o Studies

REUNION CLASS GIFTS

Reunions are a special time to reflect on your years as a student, to reconnect with old classmates, favorite professors, and to celebrate your UC Davis School of Law experience. While many things have changed at King Hall, one thing remains the same: UC Davis School of Law is committed to offer, in a public university setting, a legal education that is second to none. Reunion Class Gifts help to sustain this.

Thank you to the alumni listed on this page and the next who made gifts and pledges that counted toward their Reunion Class Gift for reunions held on October 27, 2012. All gifts received between January 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013 were counted and recognized here. Thank you to all Reunion Committee Volunteers that helped make the reunion a success.

VOLUNTEERS

Alumni volunteers and friends of the Law School are an important part of what makes UC Davis School of Law a wonderful place to study law. Throughout the 2012-2013 academic year, many alumni and friends have come to King Hall and spoken on panels, attended networking receptions, made phone calls to support the C.A.R.E.S. program, participated in the King Hall Outreach Program, spoken in a class, acted as a mentor, and more. Their contributions are an integral part of what makes this law school so great.

Thank you for your support and gift of time!
