

Mary Scoonover
Attorney, Resources Law Group
Chair, California Environmental Law & Policy Center (CELPC) Advisory Board

Mary Scoonover is an attorney with Resources Law Group, a law and consulting firm focused on creating enduring conservation. Her practice is devoted to complex natural resource management issues and conservation philanthropy. She represented the Packard, Hewlett and Moore foundations in the acquisition of more than 16,500 acres of salt ponds in South San Francisco Bay and Napa County. Ms. Scoonover designs and implements natural resource protection and public policy initiatives including Conserving California Landscapes Initiative, California Coastal and Marine Initiative, Preserving Wild California, and California Parks Forward Initiative, among others. She oversees philanthropic programs and legal work for RLG. Previously, Ms. Scoonover was a Deputy Attorney General in the Public Rights Division of the California Department of Justice, where she worked on the Lower Owens River, Mono Lake, Lake Tahoe, San Francisco Bay-Delta, and the California coast.