Federal regulations require that we verify your application for financial aid. You and your spouse must complete this worksheet and submit it along with a copy of the IRS Federal Income Tax Extension Form 4868 (Form 4868 is due to the IRS by April 18). Do not leave any blanks; if NONE please enter 0. The deadline to submit the actual 2010 Federal Income Tax return and all schedules to the Law School Financial Aid Office is the first business day of November. Any aid offered is subject to revision and cancellation if tax returns are not received by this date.

Comments:

I/We agree to submit a copy of all 2010 Federal Income Tax Returns and schedules to the Law Financial Aid Office as soon as it is filed with the IRS, but no later than the first business day of November. I/We understand that the student will receive financial aid (based on estimated need) for one semester only, to be returned if the actual tax returns are not submitted.

The information that I reported on this document is true, complete, and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentations may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal and/or repayment of Financial Aid.
