Visiting Student Agreement Purpose and Instructions

The purpose of this agreement is to enable students from the UC Davis School of Law or Home School to receive financial aid for study at another ABA approved law school or Host School.

The Host School must complete and sign the Visiting Student Agreement (VSA) and return the form to the Home School. The Home School will use the Host School budget to determine the amount of the financial aid award.

Financial aid for Study Away

Law students who are U.S. Citizens or Eligible Non-Citizens can apply for financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The UC Davis School of Law Financial Aid Office will use the information you provide on the FAFSA to determine your financial aid eligibility for study away.

Direct Deposit

It is the policy of the UC Davis School of Law Financial Aid Office to require students who study away to sign up for Direct Deposit service. Sign-up for this service online at <http://directdeposit.ucdavis.edu>, using your UCD Login ID and Kerberos password.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students who receive financial aid are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress as set forth in the UC Davis School of Law Academic Regulations to remain eligible for financial aid. In addition, students who withdraw, drop out, or drop below half-time enrollment may be required to repay financial aid. We recommend that law students read the following downloadable PDF documents to learn about their responsibilities as financial aid recipients:
