Why am I seeing this notice?

You might be a "Class Member" in a lawsuit called Lucas R. v. Azar, Case No. CV 18-05741-DMG (PLAx) (C.D. Cal.). This lawsuit is for children in Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) custody and is partly about how ORR allows and helps you talk to and work with lawyers to help you with your placement, release, and special medicines called psychotropic medications.

If you are a child in ORR custody and you have experienced or will experience obstacles to talking to your attorney or giving information to your attorney about your placement, release, and psychotropic medications, then you are a "Class Member."

There is a Proposed Settlement that will end this lawsuit without a trial. If you are a "Class Member," this could affect you. This notice explains more about what the lawsuit is about, what the Proposed Settlement says, how you can read the Proposed Settlement, and how you can tell the Judge in charge of the case what you think about the Proposed Settlement.

Court Hearing

How can I tell the Judge what I think of this Proposed Settlement?

You can write a letter with your thoughts about the Proposed Settlement, participate by phone or video in the Court hearing and speak to the Judge directly, or do both.

On May 3, 2024, there will be a court hearing before Judge Dolly Gee of the United States District Court for the Central District of California. Judge Gee will decide whether to approve the settlement. Judge Gee can only approve the Proposed Settlement if she finds it fair, reasonable, and adequate.

You may virtually participate in the Court hearing and tell the Judge what you think about the Proposed Settlement.

- Hearing Time: May 3, 2024 at 10:00 a.m.

Learning About the Lawsuit

Who is Involved in this Lawsuit?

This case is for children in ORR custody that ORR is blocking, or will block in the future, from getting help from lawyers with their placement, release, and psychotropic medications. They are called the “Class” or “Class Members.” “Psychotropic medication” is a type of medication that treats mental, emotional, or behavioral conditions and changes behavior, mental processes, or emotions/moods.

Two organizations, San Fernando Valley Refugee Children Center, Inc. and Unaccompanied Central American Refugee Empowerment also sued. Together, the Class and these organizations are called the “Plaintiffs.” This lawsuit is brought against the Office of Refugee Resettlement. They are called the “Defendants” or “ORR.”

What is a class action lawsuit?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people can sue for a group (called a “Class”) who have similar claims.

What is this Lawsuit About?

This lawsuit is about whether ORR makes it harder for children to speak with and work with lawyers to help with their placement, release, and/or psychotropic medications.

Plaintiffs claim that ORR makes it harder for children to get legal help with these important matters. Plaintiffs say that these practices violate the legal rights of children in the Class. The Defendants disagree. The lawsuit asked the court to require ORR to make improvements.

What Does the Proposed Settlement Do?

Instead of going to trial, the Plaintiffs and Defendants have met many times to negotiate a “Proposed Settlement” to fix the issues the Plaintiffs have raised. The Parties have asked Judge Gee to approve the Proposed Settlement for the Class.

This notice is a summary of the Proposed Settlement. The Proposed Settlement is a plan for ORR to improve its practices related to getting legal help. These improvements include the following new procedures:

Full Agreement
You have the right to review the entire Proposed Settlement. To get a copy of the Proposed Settlement, please follow the instructions below or visit the National Center for Youth Law website at: www.youthlaw.org/lucas-r-v-azar/settlement

Access to Lawyers	This Agreement says that you have the right to look for legal help from a lawyer you choose for decisions about placement, release, custody, and/or psychotropic medications. ORR is not required to pay for your lawyer. ORR cannot interfere with your relationship with your lawyer.
Access to Documents	ORR will create policies and procedures to make sure lawyers get updates about their clients’ cases and can see their case files. ORR will also give lawyers case files quickly to help prepare for legal proceedings.

Ending the Proposed Settlement

ORR must continue to do the things required by the Proposed Settlement for three years after the Judge approves the Proposed Settlement. The Settlement may end early if ORR finalizes regulations that have the same terms as the Settlement.

The lawsuit does not request any money damages, so the Proposed Settlement does not include payment of any money damages to any Class Members. It only requires the changes summarized above.

Attorneys' Fees

Plaintiffs' lawyers can ask Defendants to pay attorneys' fees and expenses. Plaintiffs' lawyers will not ask for any payment from you and Class Members will not owe any money, costs, or fees because of this lawsuit.

What are my options?

with the Judge, but you are not required to. If you send a comment and want to virtually participate, ask a staff member to help you participate. After the hearing, the Court will make a final decision about whether the agreement should be approved. The Judge can only approve or reject the Proposed Settlement and is not allowed to change the Proposed Settlement.

If the date, time, or location of the hearing changes, or if any other information about the hearing changes, the new information will be posted on the National Center for Youth Law website at: www.youthlaw.org/lucas-r-v-azar/settlement.
